

Maureen Joudrey graduated from Saint Mary's University, completing her Bachelor of Commerce Degree with a major in marketing and a co-operative education certification. In 2008, Maureen worked with the Saint Mary's University Business Development Centre (SMUBDC) as the Project Coordinator of the 2008 International Council for Small Business World Conference (ICSB) in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Staying on at the SMUBDC as a Project and Marketing Manager, Maureen was responsible for developing training programs, events, and conferences focused on and small business and entrepreneurship for businesses and students.

Currently, Maureen is the Communications Officer for Film Nova Scotia where she combines her passion for event management, marketing and communications by promoting Nova Scotia's film, television and new media industry and coordinating industry events.

An active member of CCSBE, Maureen was the 2011 CCSBE Conference Awards Chair and will be organizing the upcoming 2012 conference in Halifax, Nova Scotia as a Conference Co-Chair.

Contact Information:
maureenjoudrey@gmail.com
(902) 222-4945