

Nancy Beth Guptill is an Entrepreneur and Small business expert. She is president and owner of Vantage BizServices, a privately held Atlantic Canadian Company offering innovative training, networking and entrepreneurial lifestyle programs.

Nancy Beth has 22 years experience in sales, marketing, business and economic development. She is an experienced motivational trainer/speaker in Entrepreneurship, Small Business and Personal Development topics. Having launched three companies of her own while having 15 years experience as a business and economic development practitioner responsible for Entrepreneurship and Small Business portfolios, Nancy Beth has trained and coached hundreds of entrepreneurs across Canada.

Nancy Beth is the Atlantic Canadian Director for the Ladies Who Launch Incubator program as well as a Lead Trainer and Strategic Business Partner of BizLaunch. She is currently the President of Centre for Entrepreneurship Education and Development for Prince Edward Island, and a member of the CYBF loans approval committee, as well as an active member the Chamber of Commerce and various Women in Business Associations and organizations.

Vantage BizServices – Inspiring & Motivating Entrepreneurial Success